

Parish Life Conference 2023

Dioceses of New York, Charleston, and Mid-Atlantic

Hosted by St. Moses the Black Orthodox Church (Pittsburgh, PA)
at Antiochian Village Conference Center, June 28-July 2

A Vision for an Orthodox America

Mission ⚡ Evangelism ⚡ Parish Revitalization

Keynote Speaker:

Hieromonk Andrew Wermuth

We are pleased to welcome Hieromonk Andrew Wermuth from Spruce Island, Alaska (the home of St. Herman), where he serves as superior of St. Michael's Skete.

Besides living off the land with his fellow monks and welcoming to the monastery a continuous stream of young men seeking to renew their faith, Hieromonk Andrew's experiences include his own conversion as a young adult in California and substantial sojourns in Petru Voda Monastery in Romania and in war-torn Serbia.

Earning his M.Div. in 2010 from St. Tikhon's Seminary, Hieromonk Andrew has written many publications, including The Apostolic Adventures of Saint Innocent of Alaska and an Akathist to Saint Moses the Black.

Panels and Talks will include topics such as:

- Sacred Arts as a Missionary Work
- Responding to Crisis and Trauma From an Orthodox Perspective
- Starting a Ministry to the Poor
- Orthodox Schools as Mission and Evangelism

Events for all ages include:

- Different tracks for each age group with faith-enriching and fun activities
- CHOPPED! Parish Cooking Competition
- Teen Service Trip to Pittsburgh
- Pool Time, Family Bonfire, and Hafli

To register, visit: www.antiochianevents.com/ny